Naples, April 11.

THE Queen continues to advance happily in her Pregnancy, and 'tis expected will be brought to Bed by the End of next Month, or the Beginning of June at farthest. The Workmen employed in digging up the Ruins of the ancient City of Heraclea, have made some very valuable Discoveries within these few Days past. Since our small Squadron of Ships of War, Gallies and Chebecks put to Sea on a Cruise against the Barbary Corsairs, those Pyrates have entirely quitted these Coasts, and we hear they are now cruising in the Sardinian Seas, and upon the Coast of the Ecclesiastical State.

Genoa, April 15. The Great and Little Council have assembled for several Days together upon the Affairs of Corsica, which at present give great Uneasiness to this Government. The Count de Sartyrane, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia to this Republick, is on his Departure for Turin.

Florence, April 16. We learn from Leghorn, that the Trade of that Place is visibly encreasing, as appears by the great Number of Ships which have lately arrived in that Port; and which, 'tis imagined, is chiefly owing to the Convention lately concluded with the Regency of Barbary.

Rome, April 18. On the 9th Instant the Pope performed, in the Presence of the greatest Part of the Sacred College, the Ceremony of consecrating the new Bishop of Albano, to which Cardinal Spinola was lately presented; in which Ceremony he was assisted by the Cardinals Guardagni, Spinelli, Delci, Alexander Albani, Corsini, and Colonna. The Commissaries who were sent to Subaico, on Occasion of the Tumults which lately happened at that Place, are already returned hither, and have brought with them the principal Promoters of those Tumults, who are all committed to Prison, and ordered to be prosecuted with the utmost Severity. By our last Letters from Naples we are informed, that the King of the two Sicilies has presented Father Orlandi to the vacant Bishoprick of Giovannazzo.

Munich, April 27. The Elector Palatine and his Family arrived here on Saturday last. He was saluted upon his Arrival by a tripple Discharge of the Cannon upon our Ramparts;

Hague, May 4. This Morning M. Calmette, Minister from this Republick to the Court of Portugal, set out from hence for Lisbon. Within these few Days past several Military Officers, who have lately been promoted by her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, took the usual Oaths before the Council of State, in order to qualify themselves for their several Employments.

Admiralty Office, April 30, 1752.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr Thomas Riley Blanckley, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st Day of May next; This is to give Notice, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of next Month, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.
